6. Once you've verified your email, your digital account has been created successfully, and you can sign into the CHS Portal to request access to the digital tools you need.

The screenshot shows a two-column layout. The left column is white with a blue border and contains a clipboard icon with a green checkmark, the text "Welcome to CHS!", a sub-message "Your CHS digital account was created successfully. Sign in to start using your digital resources.", and a blue "Go to sign in" button. The right column is light gray and contains the heading "Welcome, Amber!", the text "CHS Portal is your personalized hub for digital resources.", a section titled "My Digital Access" with a blue square button containing a white plus sign and the text "Request new access", and a light blue banner with a lightbulb icon, the text "Need information you don't see?", and a link to "Propane and Payment Solutions".
